University holiday begins Dec. 24

The University will observe the Christmas holiday from Thursday, Dec. 24, through Sunday, Dec. 27.

Friday, Jan. 1, is New Year's Day and also will be a holiday for employees. New Year's Eve, Dec. 31, is not a scheduled holiday.

Only those activities deemed absolutely essential by area supervisors will continue during the holiday period.

The policy regarding holiday payment for classified employees is contained in Section 1, Personnel Procedure Memorandum #11.

Libraries follow holiday hours

The libraries will observe the University holiday schedule and will close Dec. 24-27.

The libraries will be open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Dec. 28-31 and will be closed Jan. 1 and 2. Hours on Sunday, Jan. 3, will be 1-5 p.m.

Normal library hours will resume Jan. 4.

Payroll checks ready Dec. 31

Because of the New Year's holiday, payroll checks for classified and student employees will be available for pickup after 11 a.m. on Friday, Dec. 31.

Rec Center to be open through quarter break

The Student Recreation Center will remain open daily, noon to 9 p.m., through Jan. 4 except Dec. 24, 25, 31 and Jan. 1.

The Center will close at 4 p.m. Christmas and New Year's eves and will be closed all day on Christmas and New Year's days.

Persons holding both fall and winter quarter memberships are eligible to use the Center during the quarter break. Special family plan hours noted in last week's MONITOR will be in effect during that time.

Winter quarter memberships, valid now through March 28, are now being sold in the Center office, which is open noon to 5 p.m. weekdays until Jan. 4.

All faculty, contract and classified staff (full- and part-time, permanent and temporary) are eligible to purchase the memberships at $31 per member per quarter and $15.50 per spouse. Children of members may join at no additional cost, and extended family plan hours are being added for the winter quarter.

The Limited Fitness Ticket (LiFT) also is being sold now for $15 per quarter. LiFT tickets will be valid only Monday through Friday, 7-9 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and carry no provision for spouse discount or family plan membership. The LiFT tickets will not be honored until Jan. 4.

Monitor

Because of the Christmas holidays, there will be no MONITOR on Monday, Dec. 28.

The next issue will be published Jan. 4. Deadline for submission of material for that edition is 5 p.m. Monday, Dec. 28.

Winter quarter schedule includes non-credit recreation for children

A number of recreational non-credit courses for youngsters will be presented this winter by the Office of Continuing Education, Regional and Summer Programs.

Among the offerings is the popular gymnastics program which includes classes in beginning, advanced beginning, intermediate and advanced gymnastics, as well as a boys' gymnastics section. Youngsters must be six years of age or older to enroll.

A course in Western horseback riding for children also is planned to be held on Saturday's at Brookdale Stables in Cygnet. The lessons, for children nine years of age and older, will emphasize horse and rider communication as well as walking, jogging, loping, and learning to saddle and bridle the horse.

"Karate for Kids" also will be offered on Saturday mornings during winter quarter for youngsters ages nine to 13.

For further information about the classes offered, fees and registration, contact the Office of Continuing Education, Regional and Summer Programs (372-0181).

approved a compensation schedule for the leaves under the early semester calendar. Faculty who elect one-semester leaves will be paid at full salary for that term. Academic year (two-semester) leaves will be funded at one-half salary.

For further information about the program, contact Norma Stickler in the provost's office (372-2915).
